

PROXY LETTER

Dear Shareholders,

Pursuant to CMA circular, all listed companies' general assembly meetings will be conducted remotely through the technical mediums and suspend the physical attendance of all meetings until further notice for the well-being of everyone. These directives are in line with the precautionary and exceptional measures taken by the relevant health authorities and the continuous efforts made by all Saudi government agencies to combat the new Coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak and to ensure public safety.